Furniture in August

THE splendid completeness of the stock of Furniture offered in the August Sale has commanded the favorable judgment of a great company of purchasers. The evident cheapness of the furniture has been best understood by the best posted buyers.

We cannot repeat the prices of this month. The best cabinet-makers have sold us furniture for the cost of wages and materials. They'll not continue such prices. But we will on all the August offerings that remain unsold.

We still show choice August selections of Book Cases, Rocking Chairs, Sideboards, Women's Desks, Toilet Tables and smaller varieties of other lines. Many are makers' samples and that fact contains volumes.

As a parting glory to the August sale we offer to-day sample lines of Rocking Chairs, Morris Chairs, Fancy Parlor Chairs and Foot Rests.

They are of Golden, Flemish, Malachite and Antique Oak, Birch and Mahogany. Prices $2.25 to $20. And will be one-half more regular.

Aside from the August offerings we have a great stock of splendid Furniture. We will sell it to you at bottom market figures. You would not buy of us on any other basis.

But the special priced furniture is a daily diminishing quantity. Procrastination is the thief of opportunity.

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

APROPOS OF RUGS.

Harmony is to a color scheme what melody is to music: In the better specimens of the fruit of the Oriental loom there is a certain indefinable "melodiousness" of tint and tine. This even true of rugs woven in bright and contrasting colors. Our Ruggery is rich in the most beautiful examples of "Rug melody"; in some are picturesque portrayals of myths and legends of the ancient Eastern World; in others, "bizarre" combinations of sacred trees, animals, &c.

Furniture fancies instinct with originality and beauty now below factory prices.
